

Beauty

The Hendel Library provides an intimate setting for cocktails or dinner. The baby grand piano can be used for entertainment. Capacity: 75-100 for cocktails, 50 for dinner.

Inspiration

Let the beauty and dynamic atmosphere of the Lyman Allyn Art Museum create memories that you will cherish for a lifetime!

Imagination

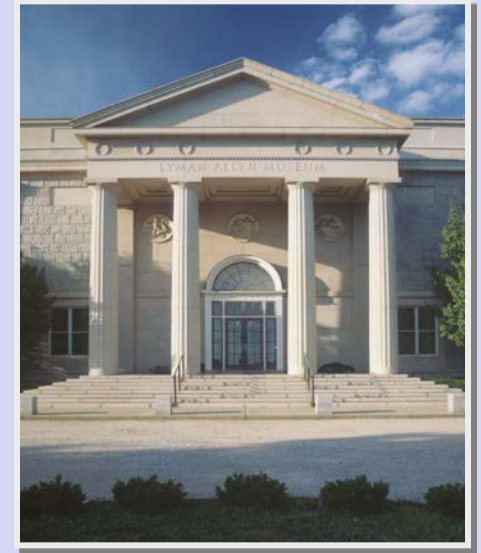

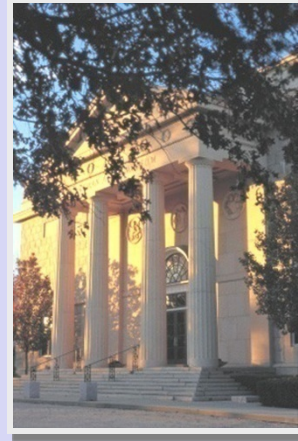

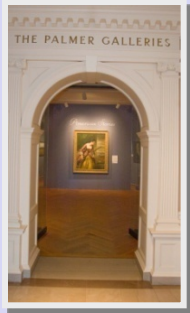

The museum's beautiful grounds can accommodate small or large size tents on two sides of the building for events with larger capacity than the museum's interior.

A Remarkable Place for Any Special Event

The Palmer Galleries, located on the 1st Floor, showcase the Museum's permanent collection of American paintings, sculpture and decorative arts. Galleries can be opened during your event and add to the unique experience your guests will enjoy at the Lyman Allyn Art Museum.

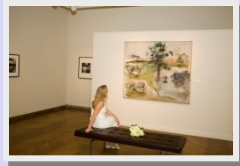

Inquiries & Bookings

Make your wedding, engagement or retirement party a memorable occasion by holding it at the Lyman Allyn Art Museum.

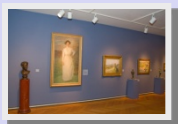

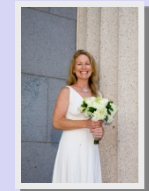

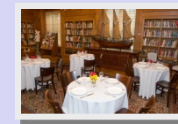

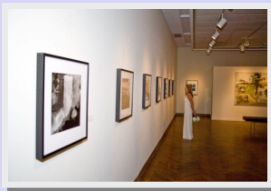

Corporate events are a specialty and complete packages are available.

For more information about planning your event, please contact Lorraine Gruber, Events Coordinator at (860) 443-2545 x112 or gruber@lymanallyn.org.

Located in picturesque Southeastern Connecticut, between Boston and New York, the Lyman Allyn Art Museum offers a unique site for your special event. Situated at the base of Connecticut College Campus and adjacent to the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, the Museum's grounds are an oasis of beautiful lawns and gardens, interspersed with contemporary sculpture. The marble interior of the Museum, along with its impressive collection of art, lends itself to multiple event options. Personal gallery tours and event coordination services are always available.

Galleries on the 2nd Floor feature changing exhibitions of Contemporary and European Art. Guided exhibition tours can be arranged for your guests as part of the event.
