

Lyman Allyn Art Museum

ANNUAL COMMUNITY ALLIANCE

The Lyman Allyn Art Museum has been a proud member of the New London community since 1932. Today, in addition to presenting exciting and wide-ranging exhibitions to thousands of visitors year-round, the Museum provides in-house and traveling programs to enhance art education for area students and schools.

We invite corporate partners to join with the Lyman Allyn Art Museum and show support for our arts community by helping us meet the increasing costs of our exciting and essential arts programming. Become an active corporate citizen and connect with the public. We offer various levels of corporate opportunities and can help you create a program that best meets your company's needs.

If you believe in the Power of Art as much as we do, we hope you'll consider becoming an active partner with the Lyman Allyn in our community. Here are the benefits we offer:
