Summer Reading Bingo

Summer Reading Bingo is back! Visitors, and readers of every age, are invited to participate June 13 - September 5. You will have the chance to win small prizes as you check off each square. Please see below for details:

- Summer Reading Bingo will begin Saturday June 13 with the last day to claim your prize at the September Free First Saturday, which offers free admission and an art activity from 11 am - 1 pm. Claim your prizes and enjoy a fun visit to the Museum!
- Every straight line BINGO achieved (horizontally, vertically, or diagonally) earns you a small prize. To claim your prize bring in your board to the Museum and visit our front desk.
- Any square asking you to visit a specific location, please ask their staff member to initial that block.
- Our past and future Book of the Month picks can be found on our Instagram (@Lyman_Allyn) and Facebook (Lyman Allyn Art Museum) pages.
- To get the most out of this summer reading challenge, please use one book per square.

We have left space in each square for you to keep track of the books read and places visited to check off each square. You can always tag us on social media using #LAAMSummerReading to share your books and travels as you go. Happy reading!
